JOB CONCEPTS

Specialist jobs are evaluated by the Appointing Authority using the ECP Group Two Professional Specialist Position Evaluation Worksheet to recommend the appropriate classification level. Civil Service reviews the factors for job complexity, program or specialty scope, and impact to determine classification level. There are two types of specialist jobs:

BUYER SPECIALIST

Program Specialist: The predominant and essential function of the job is its assigned responsibility for an accepted program that is statewide, department-wide, agency-wide or the equivalent scope. Such jobs are responsible for highly complex assignments that have considerable impact and are one-of-a-kind within the organization.

Staff Specialist: The predominant and essential function of the job is to serve as an expert in a particular specialty area or professional discipline that is statewide, department-wide, agency-wide or the equivalent in scope. Such positions are responsible for highly complex assignments that have considerable impact and are one-of-a-kind within the organization.

Administrative Assistant jobs have the predominate and essential function to advise and assist an administrator or executive in all areas for which the official is responsible. The positions report directly to the official in a staff capacity, and are typically involved in budget development, program planning, policy and procedures development, representing the official at meetings and otherwise assisting in all areas of the official's responsibilities.
